COLLEGE OARSMEN TO RACE THIS WEEK

Three Regattas Will Be Rowed -Two in East and Third in West.

HARVARD MEETS TIGERS

Three college boat races will be rowed the week, two in the East and the third on the Pacific coast. Harvard and Princeton will begin their rowing seasons on Thursday with a race over the mile and seven-eighths course on Lake Carnegic, and on Saturday Yale and Pennegic, and on Saturday Yale and Pennegic and well at San Francisco, Stanford and California will row their annual regatta. The two Harvard crews (there will be a junior race at Princeton on Thursday in addition to the big struggle) reached Princeton on Sunday evening and were out on the water twice yesterday despite the rain. # IN ONE MILE RELAY

Kansas Won't Send Team, So Crimson Will Start in Fa-

Harvard was the lucky one in the drawings for position in the relays at the University of Pennsylvania carnival next week. Its one mile team draw the pole. Being on the inside at the start is always desirable, but it will belp particularly in a race at this distance, which demands speed all the way. Technically, the University of Kansas got the favored position, but they have decided not to send on a one mile team, which shoves the Crimson over into the first place.

The Hackensack High School will open its baseball season this afternoon, play-ing the Franklin School at Hasbrouck Heights. Edman M. Massle is coach of the team and Ellwood Brockner captain. Sixteen games are on the sched-

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 17. —It was stated here to-night that Yale's football coaching staff is in favor of numbering the football players next season, this decision being reached at a meet-ing just held. Prof. Robert Cor-win, chairman of the general athwin, chairman of the general ath-letic committee, favors number-ing football players at Yale, Har-vard and Princeton. Capt. Black later announced officially that the Yale football players will be numbered. He said: "I am afraid the earlier decision was hasty and I have talked again with the committee and coaches about it. We should like to accommodate the graduates and others interested, and as players we feel that, having been defeated for the last few years, we should like to be numbered next fall and have the
